MARSENGOLD 2001

Oh the places we have been...

Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to Great Places! You're off and away!You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself in any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go. Oh, the places you'll go! And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed! (98 and 3/4 percent guarenteed.) Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting. So...get on your way!

"As we go on, we remember
All the times we had together
And as our lives change
Come whatever,
We will still be friends forever."*
At Cottage, Heights and East Elementary we all started out
Writing and arithmetic we learned about
We all came together in grade six
And made new friends really quick
School dances were fun
The whale watch and Water Wiz were a blast
Our 8th grade trip to Montreal went by way too fast
Freshman year at Sharon High
Our first Homecoming and Halloween
The year sure did fly
Sophomore year at the semi formal we danced under the stars
Junior year was filled with SAT's, the prom, and cars
Senior year sure snuck up on us fast
As we started to think about the future and remember the past
Together as a class we've come a long way
From varsity sports to clubs to the school plays
Oh, the places we have been
Starting back in kindergarten
Oh, the places we will go
To college, grad. school, you never know
It's been a long ride
It's sure been fun
One last time we look back on the memories of the Class of 2001.

Junior Prom

Long gowns, up-do's, tuxedos, and boutonnieres filled the gymnasium on April 29, 2000 as we "Had the Time of Our Lives" dancing under the Eiffel Tower. April in Paris never looked so beautiful. Streets were lined with cafes, artwork, and twinkling lights; Paris came alive in Sharon High. We started a new tradition where everyone was his or her own Prom King or Queen. Antoinette Seaberry graced the Class of 2001 with her amazing voice as she sang "Never Let You Go." The smell of Chinese food floated through the room as everyone made their way to their seats for the first time and last time all night. As the night quickly slipped away, each member of the Class of 2001 made his or her own memories that will last forever.

Semi-Formal Class OF 2001

An evening with the stars in Hollywood
The Sharon High cafeteria never looked so good
At our Sophomore Semi-Formal everyone looked so fine
As we danced the night away on May 8, 1999
Decorated with movie posters, stars, footprints and all
Stores like Bebe and Neman Marcus that weren't very tall
As sophomores we circled as a class during "I Will Remember You"
And remembered Eliot with happiness and some sorrow too
The night slipped away all too fast
When "Always" was over
The semi was soon to be just a memory of the past.

Semi-Formal Class OF 2002

When the annual rush for a date commenced in September of 1999, the Semi-Formal seemed like light years away; in fact, April 1, 2000, came and went with amazing speed. With the cafeteria decked out in strings of white lights, the Sophomore Semi certainly was "A Night Under the Stars." Silver stars lined the walls and balloons fell from the ceiling as everyone danced up a storm. As the evening came to a close, everyone took a moment to "Breathe" as they danced to their last song and reflected on a night of unforgettable memories.

Homecoming

The 2000 Homecoming festivities marked the beginning of new traditions at SHS. The day began at 10 a.m. with a girls field hockey game, pie throwing contests, cotton candy, popcorn, and raffles galore. On their new home field, the football team not only came out with a victory, but they managed to shut out Holliston, 27-0. The bleachers were packed, the students were pumped, and maroon and gold dominated the scene as halftime activities approached. The kings, queens, and senior court were announced as they crossed the field, to the sounds of cheering students, parents, and friends. Stephanie Kaye, Rachel Kaye, Erica Policow, Jenna McGowan, Christos Photopoulos, Ari Kafka, Zach Harris, and Max Baigelman made up the senior court, followed by their king and queen, Sam Mathias and Toni Seaberry. The juniors chose Neal Freed and Tracy Benner to be their king and queen; Andrew Wieland and Courtney Bloom were the king and queen of the sophomore class; and, the freshmen elected Robert Natale and Kristen Bridgeman to represent their class. The seniors claimed their prize of first place in the float competition with their amazing "eagle" float, while the freshmen were the runners up. Our first Homecoming of the new millenium set a precedent for those to come. It was a day of excitement, spirit, and memories; a tradition that shall continue forever.

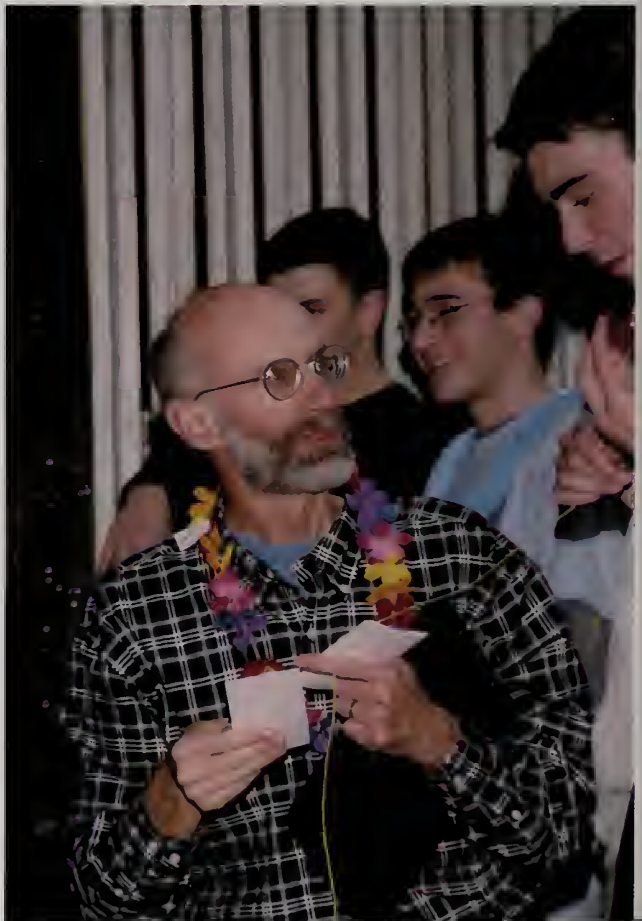
Community Service

The Louis Feinstein Public Service Program at Sharon High School provides students with an opportunity to participate in exciting and meaningful community service projects both in the classroom and in co-curricular activities. Many teachers are also using community service projects in the classroom to enrich the students' learning. In addition, the program includes extracurricular community service. Students at Sharon High School participate in a number of activities each year both in service and learning. Many students participate in elementary tutoring, City Year, Halloween for the Hungry, the Lakeside Ball, the "Ordinary Heroes" project, and the internship program that is offered to seniors. On a national level, Sharon High School has been recognized for its outstanding dedication to the community.

We Hosted

Academic Decathalon

The Academic Decathalon is a scholastic club which competes with other schools. Competitions are based on multiple choice tests in different subjects. A selected group of team members are chosen to compete as the "scoring" members of the team, however, everyone is involved and everyone takes the test. The academic decathalon is an international competition which demonstrates the worldwide thirst for konwledge by adolescents. Last year, Sharon was fortunate enough to host the competition, and schools from all over the state had arrived. Bagles and coffee were donated and everyone had a good time eating and competing. While Sharon did not qualify last year for the state competition, we hope for a more profitable competition this year. Regardless of how we place, the academic decathalon is about knowledege and fun.



S.E.M.S.B.A.

In March 2000, SHS hosted the annual senior SEMSBA festival, bringing together the top teenage musicians from Southeastern Massachusetts for a concert. Between having a band, a chorus, and an orchestra, there were a large number of students sharing our hallways that day---370 to be exact. Friday went rather well with the library, gym, and auditorium set up as practice rooms. All day the students practiced together the music they had been sent a few weeks before. Things were sounding great by the end of the day. On Saturday morning, each group practiced a little more, and finally, on Saturday afternoon, the time for the concert came. The music was amazing and the knowledge that these were the top musicians of the surrounding thirty towns made it all the better. (Not to mention the orchestra conductor's "Albert Einstein"-style hair.)

--Mr. T. McGee

Halloween

Halloween 2000 sure was swell
Mechanics, Robbers, and Santa's Elves
Britney Spears and the Bond Crew
Coyote Uglies, what were you?
The assembly, as always, was such a blast
The day went by way too fast.
Fun, candy, and prizes for all as sounds of whistles filled the halls.

Once Upon A Mattress

Hear Yea! Hear Yea!

This fall the SHS Drama Club presents “Once upon a Mattress” a restored version of the “Princess and the Pea” with amazing costumes, great choreography, and a fabulous set. The play was a hit. There was singing, dancing, acrobatics, and even a duet where one of the singers didn’t speak! It was enjoyed by students at SHS, as well as the entire community.

DEDICATION

Eliot Cohen was a person who no one will ever forget. He was a person who faced life with courage, dignity, wit, and determination, always putting others before himself. He was a normal kid with dreams of his own. "My one dream is to live a normal life; my hopes and dreams aren't to be extraordinary but just to be ordinary," Eliot Cohen once said. Eliot was not a hero because of the disease he had; Eliot was a hero to all because of the type of person he was and how he lived his life. Eliot will always remain in our hearts and minds. He will never be forgotten.

Some say it wasn't worth the things we went through
I say it ain't worth losing you
I hope you know how much you've changed all our lives
Someday you'll see
If only through heaven's eyes
Only through heaven's eyes

CAME OUT OF NOWHERE, HAD NO POINT
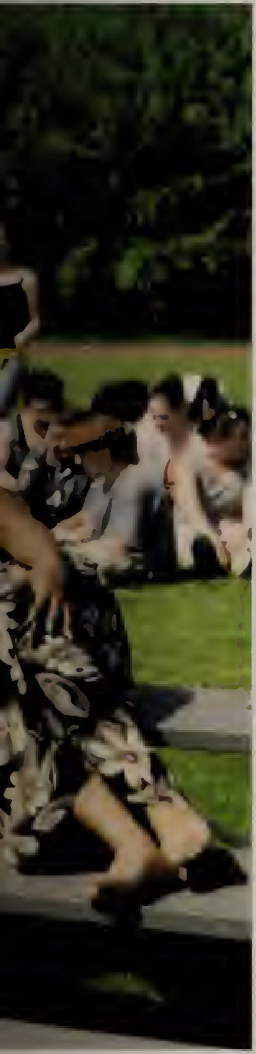
YOU CAN NOT SEE IT OR EVEN HEAR IT
IT KILLED THE KING AND ASSASINATED THE QUEEN,
SUDDENLY I FELT IT ON MY BACK,
THEN I FELT A PRICK,
THEN I FELT KIND OF SICK,
I THOUGHT IT WAS A GHOST OR MAYBE A VAMPIRE,
IT COULD BE A BUG OR EVEN A FROG,
IT CAME OUT OF NOWHERE,
IT HAD NO POINT

Eliot Cohen

SENIORS



Four years ago we entered Sharon High School...individuals seeking to do well, to find our identity, to find our best friend. We opened our lockers for the first time, looked at our schedules, thought about how great it was to finally be in high school. Four years ago we met our best friend, we went to our first school dance, we had a crush on a cute senior. Four years ago we couldn't wait to get older.

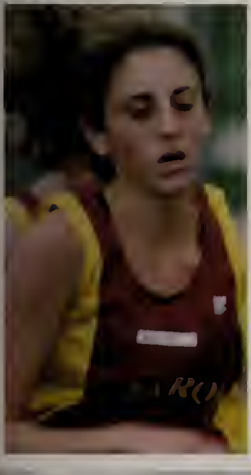
Three years ago we came into school believing that we owned the place. No longer the naïve freshman, we had a new attitude. We were still individuals searching for ourselves, looking to fit in, wanting to achieve something. We followed our daily routines, expanded our circle of friends, talked about parties. Three years ago we made a new best friend, went to Sweet Sixteen's, thought we were too mature for school dances. Three years ago we couldn't wait to get older.

11:14 - 11:42
Fire Dr
Exit

Two years ago we became upperclassmen. We realized that we were growing up, we got our licenses, we started driving out on the weekends. Two years ago we realized who our true friends were and cherished the times we spent with them. We found where we fit in, yet we still seemed to be looking for something else. Two years ago we started talking about college, thinking it was so far away. We had our Junior Prom and realized that time really does fly. But, two years ago we still couldn't wait to be seniors.

Last September we entered school as SENIORS. We had senioritis before classes even resumed, we got to leave school early and come in late, and best of all PARK IN THE PARKING LOT. Everything we did was the "last," our last homecoming, our last Halloween,our last pep rally, our last season in a sport, our last birthday at home. Last September we took our time together for granted, we went to party after party on the weekends, we rebelled, and we learned. Last September we still had the same best friend and cherished the time we spent with them. We started applying to college, far and near, we got accepted, we got rejected, we found exactly where we wanted to go. We realized that within a year, we would no longer have the comfort of home.

Now we finally have realized that we could have waited to get older. We realize that the time has somehow slipped away and soon we will be saying goodbye. Saying goodbye to our friends, our family, our home. Soon we will go to our senior prom, graduate, sit for the last time with everyone. It is the last time we will all be together, recognized as the Class of 2001.



Now we are getting excited about starting over, getting sad about what we will leave behind, getting anxious to move on. Now we realize just how important our best friends are, how much fun we really did have in four years. Now we wish we could be younger. We wish we would have taken the time to appreciate every moment, to slow down time. Now we face having to say goodbye.

Four years brought change. Friendship held us strong when things were shaky, in good times and bad, in laughter and tears, through boyfriends and girlfriends, bad grades, college acceptances and rejections, family problems, and love. Our friends showed us that life is worth enjoying. With them we wanted to grow up so quickly. Now they are the only people with whom we will remain forever young. So, together as a class, we now look back one last time at all the places we have been and we look foward to the places we will go.....

UNDERCLASSMEN

For the underclassmen, high school can be many different things. To freshmen, high school is exciting, new, and sometimes even frightening. There are new people to meet, sports teams to join, plays to act in, and clubs to become involved with. Between SAT's, Driver's Ed, the Semi, the Junior Prom, and the pressures of classwork, Sophmores and Juniors have a lot to do. Although as Freshman we feel like our time in high school will be endless, the years as underclassmen go by quickly, and before we know it we are Seniors.

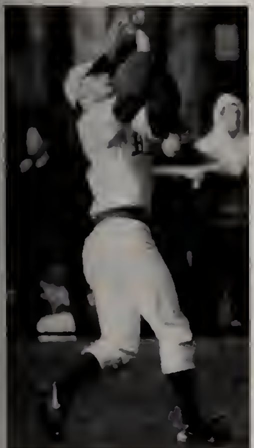
SPORTS

School spirit for the Eagles just can't be beat
In rain or shine, victory or defeat
The students show off their talents and skills
On the courts and on the fields
Maroon and gold jerseys lead the way
Everytime the team is ready to play
Each season brings new excitement to all
From soccer and wrestling to tennis and baseball.



Boys' Tennis

The Sharon High boys' tennis team had another outstanding season. Led by co-captians Jon Arkin and Jesse Rosenthal and seniors Robbie Greece, Scott Rubino, and Ari Michaelson. The team posted a perfect 16-0 record in the Hockomock League for the 16th consecutive year. Coach Holt proudly took the boys to the state tounament. Seeded 5th in the section, the boys upset the number 1, 2, and 4 seeds on route to winning the South Sectional Championships. The doubles teams of Michaelson and Rubino and Rosenthal and junior Zach Harris went very far in the individuals' tournament as well. This upcoming year looks to be equally promising with the captians Zach Harris and Max Baigelman, and underclassman Jared Coggan leading the way! Congratulations on your past sucess and best of luck in the future. We are so proud of Sharon tennis.

CAPTAIN

Girls' Tennis

The 2000 season for the girls' tennis team was one of hard work, dedication and team effort put forth by all. Led by captains Heather Penn, Leah Zamkow, Andrea Lechter, and Erica Zidel, the girls went in with high expectations for another great season. With five new additions to the varsity squad and a new coach, the team set goals and worked vigorously towards another successful season. Although not a perfect record, 12-4, the girls played their hearts out, and never gave up.The whole team appreciates the devotion and tireless effort that Coach Banno put in to make the 2000 season unforgetable. As the season came to an end, the girls began to set higher goals for themselves for the 2001 season. Captains Jenn Wise and Amy Coran are looking forward to a strong 2001 season and wish the team the best of luck.

Girls' Spring Track

Led by captains Rebecca Dickens, Wai Ling Ly, and Alison Lemovitz, the 2000 Girls' Spring Track team had a very sucessful season. Finishing fifth in the Hockomock league, the team always put forth total effort and impressive performances. The season ended with the 4x800 meter relay team of Rebecca Dickens, Jen Walter, Courtney Darcy, and Jordana Werba competing in Nationals in North Carolina.

Boys' Spring Track

The 2000 Boys' Spring Track team had a very enjoyable and successful season. Led by captains Adam Greenspan, Damien Fenderson, and Mark Wayshak, the entire team worked hard, performed well, and was always very supportive. The team finished third in the Hockomock league, and looks forward to more success within the competitive league.

Softball

The Varsity Girls Softball team may not have ad a winning record, but they most definitely have utstanding spirit, enthusiasm, and desire. The 2000 eason was filled with hard work and improvment, oth in the field and at the plate. Led by senior captain, hortstop Jean Wall, and senior second baseman, achel Ostroff, the girls put up a tough fight, game fter game. Next season is looking promising with the eturn of seven experienced and amazing seniors: captains Christi Dello Russo, Jessie Miller, Jamie Wall, and Jenna McGowan, and in addition, Lauren Fisher, Laura Glick, and Sarah Coenan. The team would like to thank the graduated seniors for all of their support, leadership, and unforgettable memories, and wish them the best of luck with their future endeavors. Last, but not least, the girls thank Coach Reagan for his dedication to coaching and unconditional support. Nice playing girls and good luck next season!

Baseball

The 2000 baseball team had a great season. Starting the season to a fast 8-0 start, finished with a final record of 14--7, second in the Hockomock League, and earning a State Tournament birth.

The 2000 Eagles were led by a great group of seniors, headed by captains Ben Schlafman, Mike Kurkjian, and Mark Shumsker. In addition, the Mike Narkiewica, Jack Holleran, Randy Berkowitz, Matt Levine, John Kantor, and John Dinapoli were the other seniors who continued their leadership and baseball abilites toward the successful year.

With the graduation of this group of seniors, this years team will have to make up for this big loss. They will be lead by senior captians David Kagan, Matt Melaugh, and Danny Holleran. Other seniors, Willie Goldshine, Darren Gorden, Ari Kafka, Max Krawthamer, Allon Porter, Bret Silverbreg, and Tim Rynne, will all continue towards the upcoming season.

After such a sucessful year last season, Coach Peckham and the Eagles are expecting nothing less for the 2001 team.

Lacrosse

Coming into the 2000 season as a fairly new and inexperienced club, the GirlsLacrosse team suprised every team in the league by coming out to play hard and to win. From the very beginning, each and every member on the team gave it her all, and it was obvious that everyone on the team was determined to have a successful season. Pulling off numerous victories, the girls lacrosse team has proven their ability to play in a competitive league and is ready to become a real varsity sport for the spring of 2001. With captains Marzi Alavi, Liz Arguimbeau, and Alyssa Garber leading the team to numerous victories offensively, sophmore Jana Katz put up a great fight as she made her debut as the team's goalie. Coach Argimbeau and Coach Gassman, whom were both newcomers to the Sharon LacrosseTeam, were completely devoted to their team and taught each member how to play hard and to show their dedication to the sport and to themselves. Both coaches are returning this year, looking forward to a great season as a varsity sport, led by captains Rachel Kaye, Jenessa Berger, and Lisa Schulkind.

Team:S.Filinov, A.Lamb, H. Goldstein, H. Bernstein, A. Holtzman, S. Schelmerdine, F. Lev, H. Conroy, R. Slobodkin, A. Wolbarst, J. Hartwell, Coach P. Argimbeau, L. Schulkind, S. Cohen, R. O'Hara, J. Cheerleading

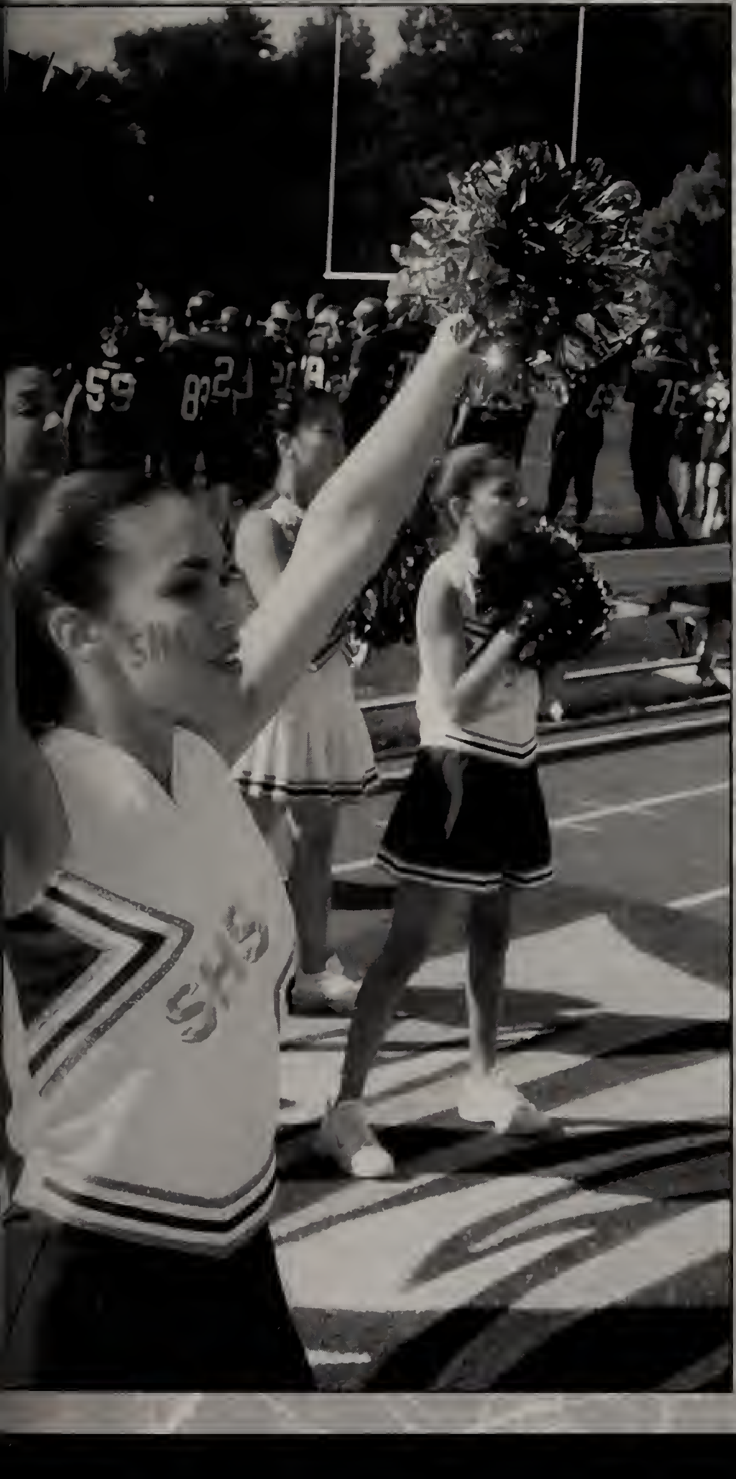
The cheerleaders are having an amazing year. They have done an awsome job cheering the boys on, through thick and thin, both in football and basketball seasons. When the chips were down, the teams and crowds could always count on the cheerleaders to have the SPIRIT. The team also did an amazing job preparing for and participating in competition. The girls really worked hard to come up with new and innovative material for every game and competition and have truly proven themselves to be the SPIRIT of Sharon High School athletics.



Golf

The Sharon High School golf team practiced regularly at the Sharon Country Club. The hardworking co-captains, Eric Goode and Marc Bridgeman, were instrumental in both the organization and motivation of their team. Evan Hahn and Matt Aschaffenburg tied for fourth place in the Hockomock League Championships. The team's coach, Joe Cook, was impressed by the players' improvements and their general attitude and appearance throughout the season.

Girls' Soccer

Although the Girls Soccer team didn't have a winning record, their heart and dignity always remained on the field. The fall was a rebuilding season for the Eagles headed by a new coach, Mr. Baeta. There were many new and old faces on the field that contributed to the season. The team was led by captains Stefani Bluestein, Jenessa Berger, Nicole Colassi, and Jaime Gassman. With the loss of seven seniors there will be a fresh new look next season. The seniors would like to wish the underclassman luck next season. Believe, achieve, and win.

Boys' Soccer

The Sharon High Eagles Varsity Soccer Team started off the 2000 season slowly, but ended the season strongly. Led by captains Jeff Strassman and Justin Clark, the varsity soccer team was atop the Hockomock League in goals scored. Leading scorer, Randy Ofori, was named the Hockomock All-Star, and Tim Farris was closely behind Ofori, scoring several goals and assists. Coach Alan Howie is very optimistic for the upcoming 2001 season, and he has high hopes for the future Varsity Team, which will be led by captains Randy Ofori, Matt Kawadler, and Matt Brown.

Volleyball

The 2000 volleyball season at Sharon High School was extremely successful, although the eagle's did not qualify for the state tournament. Led by captains Bonnie Vanzler and Lauren Gesserman, the team approached every game focusing on teamwork and communication. The team will greatly miss the contributons of the seniors: Michelle Heller and Lauren Gesserman's setting; Lauren Fisher's middle blocking; Mary Lu's passing; and Jessi Groden and Bonnie Vanzler's outside hitting and defense. Everyone on the team played with their heart and encouraged her teamates to do their personal best. With a strong group of underclasssman, the team hopes to have a rewarding season next fall.

Boys' and Girls' Cross Country

The 2000 season was fun and successful for the boys' and girls' cross country teams. Led by captains Erik Mandell, Dan Dickens, Mike Gorsky, Sherill Kelson, Lauren Kadesh, Sarah Fine and Christine Byrne, the teams performed well against tough competition within the Hockomock League and on the state level. Special thanks to coaches Ragona and Mandell for all their time, effort and support. Congratulations to both teams for a great season!

Field Hockey

This year, the field hockey team had an amazing season. Led by senior captains Helen Bingham and Jamie Wall, the team fought their way into the State Tournament for the first time since 1977. Throughout the season they competed impressively against the skilled Hockomock league. Their amazing performances led to their outstanding record of 8-4-6. The three hour practices paid off; this year's team is the most aggressive team Sharon has had for many years. Good luck to seniors Laura Houston, Daina Ziaugra, Jamie Wall, Helen Bingham, and Madeline McGregor.

Football

The football team faced a very difficult this season. Their schedule was vrey demanding. The conmtribution of the Seniors pulled the team through the challenges of the 2000 season. Captains Danny Holleran, Eric Iverson, and Dennis Williams led the team along with seniors Mike Dane, Matt Panessidi, Mickey Dawes, David Berkland, Justin Wolfe, and Jeff Yunes. The team hopes for more success next year and to improve on this years 2-7-1 record. Coach James will continue to guide the Eagles next season. Thanks to Coach James and the rest of the coaching staff. Good luck to next years seniors.

Girls' Basketball

The girls' basketball team enjoyed a very successful season. The Hockomock League is known for its competitiveness, and the Eagles stayed right in the mix. Led by senior captains Jenessa Berger, Stefani Bluestein, Nicole Colassi, and Jamie Wall, and with the help of head coach Bruce Allman and JV coach Joe Cook, the girls' basketball team put up a strong fight. The seniors wish the best of luck to the girls' basketball team next season.

Boys' Basketball

How do you follow up a season in which the team went all the way to the Fleet Center? How about starting off with six straight wins. That's exactly what this year's Boys' Basketball team did. Led by coach Bruce Jackman, and senior captains Dennis Williams, Erik Iverson, and David Berkland, the team breezed through the early league games and also won the Braintree Tournament with a thrilling win over B.C. High. The team then took back to league play, picking up right where they left off. With a supporting cast of seniors including Ari Kafka, Matt Melaugh, David Kagan, Stafford Green, and Darren Gordon, the basketball team easily qualified for a spot in the state tournament at the end of the season. However, their work is not done, for there is still a strong fight going on for the league title, as well as the Sharon Tournament. The 2000-2001 boy's basketball season has been a thrill to watch so far and is only going to get better.

Winter Track

The 2000-2001 season proved once again to be successful and fun for the winter track teams. Led by captains Justin Clark, Dan Dickens, Dan Fox, Erik Mandell, Leigh Cohen, Sherill Kelson, Ilana Matfis, and Diana Ziaugra, both teams competed very well in the Hockomock League and on the state level. The time and efforts of Coach Sullivan and Coach Mandell were much appreciated by the entire team. Both teams are looking foward to another successful season.

Wrestling

This year in wrestling there have been many changes. We have welcomed to our program two new coaches, Michael and Anthony Lucie. The demands of wrestling have been guided by the techniques and methods of practice of which the new coaches have brought to the team. The agressiveness of the SHS team has resulted in achieving many more pins than in past years. Our captains and seniors Joe Azersky, Kevin Bright, Pat Morrison, Matt Wilson, and Mickey Dawes have shown great leadership in helping the younger wrestlers adjust to our new program. Our team hopes to achieve the goal of being a top ten team.

The gymnastics team began their season by beating Canton, a team that Sharon had not beaten in ten years.This started off their winning season, being named Hockomock League Champions. Led by Captain Sarah Schwab, the team finished with an undefeated season, despite some equipment problems. Sveta Shterenberg and Kelly Whiffen played a tremendous part in our season. The team will miss the following seniors: Sarah Schwab, Sveta Shterenberg, Laura Bibbo,Jackie Yecies,and LeahVanVaerynwyck. Other team members are: Jenna Schlafman, Allison Kublin, Amy Wobarst, Kelly Whiffen,Allyson Chase and Lianne Hawes. Coaches:Susan Rennie and Lori Cady.

This season the boys' team was led by Captain Ben Huggins and the girls' team was led by Captains Jenna McGowan and Caitlin Hawes. The beginning of the season started out with a 3-3 record for both teams. The tough competition of the teams Sharon faced made Sharon swimmers and divers solid. Our swimmers and divers all gave strong performances, allowing some to have sectional qualifying times and scores. The team continues to grow and promises to be very strong next year. Good Luck to next year's swimmers and divers!

FACULTY

The teachers and administration play such an important role at Sharon High School. They put in numerous hours teaching, providing extra help, preparing lessons, and correcting our papers. Although we, the students, sometimes overlook all the time and effort that the faculty always gives, we really do appreciate all that they do. We thank the faculty not only for being our teachers, but for being our advisors, coaches, and friends.

--The Class of 2001

Administration

To the Class of 2001,

It has been my privilege to work with such a fine group of students during your thirteen years of education in the Sharon Public Schools. Your commitment to excellence in academics, the arts, athletics, and student activities has reinforced the fine reputation the Sharon public schools has nationally, regionally and locally. You have set a high standard for others to aspire to, and I am grateful for your hard work and dedication. I am confident you will do well in future endeavors

Thomas M. LaGrasta, Ed. D.
Superintendent of Schools

Dr. Thomas M.LaGrasta

Mr. Michael Tempesta

To the Class of 2001,

It is with special pleasure that I congratulate the class of 2001 as it graduates from Sharon High School on June 3, 2001. I have many memories of graduating classes from my career at Sharon High School (you will be the 30th graduating class), but nonetheless you are my very first class as the high school principal. For that reason you will all continue to be very special to me.

I have observed you mature over the course of your senior year and develop into individuals who display excitement and enthusiasm about the future with the satisfaction that your experience at Sharon High School has been a rewarding one. Together, I believe, we have made Sharon High School a better place for all students. Your leadership has been exemplary, your scholarship recognized, and your enthusiasm heard!

As you now move into the next phase of your life please know that your school administrators along with teachers and staff will miss you, but are with you in spirit and wish each member of the Class of 2001 the very best in their individual life endeavors.

Sincerely,
George S. Anthony, Ed. D.

Your Presence is a present to the world
You're unique and one of a kind
Your life can be what you want it to be
Take the days just one at a time.

Don't put limits on yourself
So many dreams are waiting to be realized
Decisions are too important to leave to chance
Reach for your peak, your goal, your prize.

Have health and hope and happiness
Take time to wish upon a star
And don't ever forget for even a day
How very special you are.

To Rachel, Jason, and Stephanie,

May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam;
And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home;
And may you grow to be proud, dignified and true;
And do unto others as you'd have done to you.
Be courageous and be brave and in our hearts you'll always stay
Forever young.

May good fortune be with you, may your guiding light be strong;
Build a highway to heaven with a prince or a vagabond;
And may you never love in vain, and in our hearts you will remain
Forever young.

And when you finally fly away we'll be hoping that we served you well.
For all the wisdom of a lifetime, no one can ever tell.
But whatever road you choose, we're right behind you win or lose
Forever young.

Speak and you will be heard,
make your words kind
and you will be judged so.

Love kindly and unselfishly,
with no wish to possess.
Search for who you are
and for what matters
give freely to all,
and you shall recieve
so much more.

Listen to the troubles of others and your own shall be halved.

Live each day as your last,
treasuring each sight and sound.
Accept what you have
and all that is freely given.

Strive to be greater that you were before.

Ask, and even your smallest wish will be granded.
Dream of what can bea world of peace and beauty for all to share.

And remember you are loved.

Election 2000

George W. Bush selects Dick Cheney, former Wyoming representative, and former secretary of defense as his vice-presidential running mate on the Republican ticket.

The 2000 presidential election was in many ways decided by not just the voters but the courts. Five weeks after election day, the US Supreme Court blocked Al Gore's request to have disputed Florida ballots recounted. George W. Bush and Dick Cheney won the election after being awarded Florida's 25 electoral votes.

Antiquated voting methods in this age of technology threw the presidential election into turmoil. Punch card ballots, and the accompanying "Votomatic" system were first created in the 1960s. Disputed ballots had chads, or paper fragments hanging from the punch card that made it difficult for voting machines to read the ballots.
